Lindamood-Bell® Academy Newsletter

October 2017

Welcome to the 2017-18 school year! I'm honored to be the Director of Lindamood-Bell Academy, and I'd like to share with you how excited we all are to begin a year full of dynamic instruction, engaged students, and joyful learning.

This is my 21st year with Lindamood-Bell and my second with Academy. I know first-hand that the needs of our students are quite different, and we are committed to individualizing and integrating the learning our students are doing to help all reach their potential.

Thank you for your support in helping make Lindamood-Bell Academy (LBA) such a successful environment, where kids are growing and learning at their own rate. We are looking forward to a fantastic school year and are excited to make your child's school dreams come true!

OLIVER
Sacramento, CA

Oliver struggled in public school. Everything seemed to move too fast for him, and as he fell behind it got harder and harder to catch up. What should have taken him 30 minutes each night for homework was taking two or more hours, often ending in tears.

Oliver came to Lindamood-Bell Academy last year at our Sacramento center at the third-grade level, and the changes could be seen almost immediately. He would come home excited, wanting to read books to his family, and sharing what he was learning.

He's learned to work independently, he loves science, and now he talks about wanting to be a scientist. Oliver's school dreams are coming true daily.

“ Lindamood-Bell Academy has given my child a future. And that's a gift. What they are doing here is they're giving Oliver the future that he would not have had otherwise. ”

- Shari, Oliver's mother

SHINE ON CAST

"I knew when I grew up I wanted to help people. I have taken my values of compassion, patience, and understanding, and applied it to my true passion: helping children and adults reach their full potential through education. When my journey at Lindamood-Bell began in Hawaii in 2013, I knew I had found my purpose. Knowing how much those very first students' lives had changed from our programs ignited a passion that has carried me here to our Lindamood-Bell Academy. There is a very special magic that happens at Lindamood-Bell, and I am honored to be working with such amazing kiddos in the center."
